ANTHONY NOLAN

saving the lives of people with blood cancer

Take advantage of tennis fever this summer to have fun and raise vital funds with Anthony Nolan's Wimbledon Sweepstake. Everyone who takes part will have their own player to support, the prospect of winning a prize, and will be raising money to help us find more lifesaving matches for people with blood cancer.

How to organise your Wimbledon Sweepstake

1 The tournament begins with over 400 players, so wait until the quarter finalists are announced in the second week and fill in the tickets below with the remaining players' names. Cut out the names, fold them in half, and place them in a hat (or tennis ball tin!)

2 Ask your friends and colleagues to pick a ticket for a suggested donation of £2 per ticket. Don't forget to keep a record of which player each individual has drawn on the record sheet below.

3 Make sure you get a great spot on the sofa to watch the final, after which you can award the winner with a great prize (or your eternal love), as well as making a donation to Anthony Nolan.

Acing your sweepstake

Make a racket about when your tickets go on sale at the start of Wimbledon, and tell your colleagues, family and friends how they can get their hands on them.

Hold a party to watch the big final and serve up the classic strawberries and cream in return for some generous donations.

Wimbledon Sweepstake Tickets

Fill these tickets out with the players' names. Print off the tickets multiple times and you can do this for the Men's Singles, Ladies' Singles, Men's Doubles, Women's Doubles, and Mixed Doubles!
