Anthony Nolan Cake flags		Every brownie you buy and sponge you scoff helps us save even more lives through stem cells.	Saving lives through stem cells
Just cut out each flag, fold them in half and stick to a cocktail stick. And that's it – cake flags that really will save lives! And make sure you show your friends, family and followers your cake flags in action by sharing your event on social media. Just be ready for the stampede of hungry people		Every brownie you buy and sponge you scoff helps us save even more lives through stem cells.	Saving lives through stem cells
